THE SCARS

I have fond memories of being a child and going to Mt. Morgan to visit some of the extended family. We all have those treasured memories of past times. However, it was the mine that intrigued me: watching the molten copper being poured, the huge stack and of course the enormous hole in the ground.

I remember standing on the edge with my uncle watching the euclids make their way round and round the narrow road to get to the bottom. The busy mining days are now a distant memory and left behind for all to see is a huge hole filled with toxic waste which periodically runs into the Dee river whenever there is a lot of rain.
On my last visit there were even a few dead birds floating on top.

The end result of our desire for gold and copper.
It will take more than our lifetimes to clean up...if it ever could be.
That, along with the waste heaps is an environmental scar on the landscape of Mt Morgan. For many people the town is remembered by this scar.

In today's reading, Thomas has his doubts.
How could his friend's testimony be real?
Jesus was dead! How could they have seen Jesus alive?
Today I want us to reflect on Jesus holding out his hands
... his scars and saying to Thomas,
'Put your finger here and believe!'

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

John 20:19-31 (NIV)

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

<sup>19</sup> On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear of the Jewish leaders, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you!”

<sup>20</sup> After he said this, he showed them his hands and side. The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord.

<sup>21</sup> Again Jesus said, “Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you.” <sup>22</sup> And with that he breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup> If you forgive anyone’s sins, their sins are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven.”

Tuesday Bible Study group is having an Easter break for two weeks, resuming at our Church on the 20th April 2021 at 9.30AM. Everyone is welcome to come along for some great fellowship.

TODAY, The April edition of NeXus Monthly Journal is now available in printed form in our Church. Can all the pastoral carers make sure their people have a copy please. The digital version will go by email on Tuesday.

Thanks goes to all those people who were able to help with the car parking for the Caravan, Camping, Fishing and 4WD Expo. What a mammoth effort seeing that there hasn’t been any Showground events for us to gain some much needed funds.
