LIFE MESSAGES

How many life messages were given to us as we grew up?

"Grow up! Stop acting like a baby!"

Stand on your own two feet! Be a man! Do it yourself!"

I'm not sure they were all positive but I'm sure we've come across them at times. However, what did the words do to those they were directed towards? Some of us may have put on a brave face and demonstrated to the world we were a force to be reckoned with while inwardly we were a different person altogether.

Australians are often depicted as strong, independent, brave somewhat carefree people outwardly. But what about inwardly? Maybe 'Crocodile Dundee' is a bit overboard but the stories of men and women who selected or squatted on land and sometimes against all odds made a life seem to abound. Poems were written about them; Henry Lawson and Banjo Patterson immortalised their life style and hardships and Slim Dusty sang their praises.

Experiences are certainly important teachers in our lives and tend to shape the way we think and act. However, there is another life message that really stands in contrast to the independent, self-reliant, I don't need anyone to help me spirit that's often depicted.

It says, 'Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him...' What kind of people are formed by a daily trust in the Lord? Are they wimps or a force to be reckoned with!

Rev Glenn

Nambour Uniting Church

Welcome to our Sunday Worship Service

The Nambour congregation welcomes everyone to worship.
Please welcome and thank our attending minister Rev Glenn and his lovely wife Anne,
as we accept all who gather to worship in peace, with an invitation to pray and reflect in the Prayer Chapel at any time our Church is open.

Chaplaincy

Our Church is a great supporter of Chaplaincy in schools (and in hospitals and everywhere else).

Please return your Chaplaincy money-boxes and pick up an empty, then these funds will be forwarded to the Nambour-Burnside Chaplaincy.

These money-boxes are re-useable.

Rev Glenn holidays

It is time for Rev Glenn to have a break for the next 4 weeks.

Rev James Stevenson will lead our congregation through the Sunday Worship Service next week, 19 September 2021.

Wishing Anne and Rev Glenn a good holiday!

Wind-up Church Sign on Coronation Avenue

Workplace Health and Safety Qld has recommended that SpaceAge winch type signs are to be lowered and taken out of service due to a safety risk. Our sign on Coronation Avenue is one of these signs. We have been advised by the Work Health and Safety manager of Qld Synod that we are obliged to implement the recommendation. The sign has been lowered and the Church Council is looking at possibilities for the future. Any queries, please talk to Lynn Blackwood-Troyahn.

NeXus Journal

The September 2021 NeXus Journal has been printed and is in the Church foyer for distribution.

Can all carers please make sure these are distributed to the people that you look after.

Nambour Orchid Society Spring Show last week

The Spring Show put on by the Nambour Orchid Society was very successful, the bench displays were outstanding with wonderful and varied colours, types and fragrances giving much pleasure to many people from many places, including those of our congregation. Congratulations and thanks to the people who put on such a well organised event during this time of pandemic, well done indeed! The Society's Facebook page has some photo's, please CLICK on the LINK below;
