“Not one stone left upon another”

There was a time in my life as a young Christian when I was fascinated by 'end of times' material. We consumed such books as the 'Left Behind' series coming out of America which made you wonder, as many before us have, about the future events and the story which the book of Revelation among others seemed to depict for us. Perhaps the second coming of Christ has been a very divisive topic over the years and left us with what appears to many as a very scary book at the end of the Bible which Hollywood revels in to dream up yet another so called 'Apocalyptic movie' and perhaps helps us appreciate why certain enclaves in America listening to self-styled prophets are seeing and praying for the 'end times' in current global issues.

However, unsettling as all this can be and whatever way it has influenced human history, I think it fair to say many of the popular present-day understandings of passage such as Revelation and Mark 13 have gone far beyond how the original audience understood these writings.

In other words, much has been taken out of context. This makes me wonder how biblical texts like this with such a history of misuse can nourish the church and individual Christians now because of the baggage we have sometimes unknowingly carried.

As we touch on Mark 13 and Revelation 1 next week it is important to ask what the recipients were facing.

Welcome to our Sunday Worship Service

The Nambour congregation welcomes everyone to worship.

Please thank and welcome our attending minister Rev Glenn Ingram

as we accept all who gather to worship in peace, with an invitation to pray and reflect in the Prayer Chapel at any time our Church is open.

Mary Burnett Presbytery is meeting in a live-in venue at Camp Pialba, Hervey Bay this weekend. Helen Staines is our representative for Presbytery and the event includes all meals and accommodation from supper on Friday to morning tea on Sunday. The live-in weekend will be a great opportunity for collegiality, and connecting with others in a more meaningful, spiritual way. Helen will provide a full report next week.

Sunday 21st November 2021

Thank You Service in COVID times

We all want to say THANK YOU for all your help and support so willingly given week by week

May God be praised!

Next Sunday our Worship Service will be one of Thankfulness, followed by a SPECIAL MORNING TEA stay, enjoy a cuppa and a good chat as well.

Do come along, bring your friends and give thanks.
