9AM Sunday Worship Service

We are called to be evidence of God's love breaking into the world

SUNDAY 5th December 2021 IS THIS HOME?

My son had a friend who lost his way in life sometime after University. He was bright, passed all his exams, got a reasonable job and was a gifted French Horn player. However, because of his troubled background in life he got in with a group and at one time I spoke to him as he sat in the doorway of a closed shop in the city, smoking marijuana with some of his mates; to say the least, it was sad. And at sometime over those few wasted years before he got back on track, he lost his horn. Was it stolen? Did he trade it in for money for his habit or did he leave it in a place and just forgot it? He had absolutely no recollection of what had happened to it.

This week we meet the fiery preacher, John the Baptist. However, it made me ask a question as I think of this young man: 'What does wilderness look like to many people?' This young man was certainly in a wilderness; a wasted place; a dry, useless place, a place of loneliness, searching and wandering where no-one really wants to be. I believe I have known places like that and I wonder how many of us can admit to having spent time in the wilderness or even feel they are there right now? Nevertheless, there is something remarkable! The word of the Lord comes to us in the wilderness. To all who will listen the Word of God comes to us right there where we need it the most.

What might it be for you?

Rev Glenn

Nambour Uniting Church

Welcome to our Sunday Worship Service

The Nambour congregation welcomes everyone to worship.

Please welcome and thank our attending minister Rev Glenn Ingram

as we accept all who gather to worship in peace, with an invitation to pray and reflect in the Prayer Chapel at any time our Church is open.

TODAY Second Sunday in Advent

Our Church will light the candle of PEACE.

The light of this Peace Candle drives darkness
even further into the distance.

Advent is: about waiting, longing, preparing, and working towards the return of Jesus.

 Rotary change of Service for tomorrow *****

Please note the change of Service date for Rotary Garden Village to Monday 6 December 2021 at the same time of 2PM.

NeXus Journal

The NeXus Journal has been printed and will be in the Church foyer for distribution.

This edition is for December 2021 and January 2022

Can all carers please make sure these are distributed to the people that you look after.

Rev Glenn has a message "It looks a little bit like Christmas"

We shall be on a journey in the Daily prayers from Advent into the New Year, with Light One Candle written by Rev Graham.

The Bible readings will be for those two months.

The digital version will be emailed Tuesday.
