SUNDAY 2nd January 2022

At the Gate of the Year

This is my last little story for Nexus and I'm taking the opportunity to say thank you for having us with you over the last nine months. Something within me makes me feel I've made new friends and not just carried out a "job." Surely, the important thing is our faith in the Lord and the encouragement we bring to one another. This year seems to have been nothing but Covid. Some have suffered more than others but as you read this the New year parties will be over and I want to pass on a precious thought as we enter a new year. It was quoted by King George VI in his Christmas Day broadcast in 1939 as the ominous signs and sounds of war put terror into the hearts of people in Britain.

I said to the man who stood at the Gate of the Year, "Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown." And he replied, "Go out into the darkness, and put your hand into the hand of God. That shall be to you better than light, and safer than a known way." May that Almighty Hand guide and uphold us all.

We also are entering a new year not knowing where it will take us but as the Christ light was lit at Christmas, may His presence burn brightly in us all whatever each day brings. Some days will be beautiful and others will be dark but it is always the presence of Christ who upholds us. God bless.

Rev Glenn
