SUNDAY 1st January 2023

First Sunday after Christmas Day - NEW YEARS DAY

Collect: God of the end and the beginning. As we come to the very beginning of this new year, Lord, allow us to begin with you. We cannot afford to leave you behind in 2022. We need you in our new journey of 2023. Guide us and lead us so that we would stay focused and not be distracted in our new journey in 2023. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. Let us all praise the name of the Lord! His name is greater than all others; his glory is above earth and heaven, Amen

Let us welcome 2023 with Praise and Thanksgiving

The psalm 148 for today is one of the many beautiful Psalms of Praise and Thanksgiving. The author is unknown, but he composed this Psalm with the theme that all creations are gathered to praise and worship the Lord. One of the bible commentators put it in a beautiful description – “All creation is like a majestic symphony or a great choir composed of many harmonious parts that together offer up songs of praise to the Lord. Each part (independent, yet part of the whole) is caught up and carried along in swelling tides of praise. This is a picture of how we as believers should praise God – individually, yet as part of the great choir of believers worldwide. Are you singing your part well in the worldwide choir of praise?” This is a beautiful analogy of how the creations take part in praising God. No one is left out, everyone is responsible in praising and worshipping God. As we commence our journey in this new year of 2023, we are reminded of our responsibility and priority to Praise & Worship God wherever we go and whatever we do. Let us speak together with the Prophet Isaiah today, “I will tell of the Lord’s unfailing love; I praise him for all he has done for us. He has richly blessed the people of Israel because of his mercy and constant love.” Let us begin our journey by acknowledging the unfailing love of God and what he has done for us last year, and what he is providing for us in our journey into the future. Happy New Year Everyone!!! Grace & Peace, Rev Maile

Proverbs for Daily Living –

1. “Let our New Year’s resolution be this: We will be there for one another as fellow members of humanity, in the finest sense of the word.” Goran Persson
2. “You are never too old to set another goal or to dream a new dream.” C.S.Lewis
