We are called to be evidence of God's love breaking into the world

SUNDAY 11th June 2023

Pentecost 2

Collect: Almighty and merciful God, in your goodness keep us, we pray, from all things that may hurt us, that we, being ready both in mind and body, may accomplish with free hearts those things which belong to your purpose; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever, Amen.

From the desk of the minister: Faith brings life

We have three faith stories in our Gospel reading for this week.

The first one was about this tax collector Matthew. Jesus called him from his office, and he followed Jesus immediately. Matthew prepared a dinner and other tax collectors and outcasts were there together with Jesus and his disciples. The Pharisees saw this and asked his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with such scum?" When Jesus heard this, he said, "Healthy people don't need a doctor – sick people do." "I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners." The faith of Matthew makes him respond to the call of Jesus. He knew that he has done lot of wrongs; he needs to change his life. Faith brings life.

Second story, about this synagogue leader who came and knelt before Jesus and said, "My daughter has just died. But come and put your hand on her, and she will live." Jesus got up and went with him, and so did his disciples. Jesus entered the house and said to the people, "Go away. The girl is not dead but asleep." They laughed at him. He went in and took the girl by the hand, and she got up. By the faith in Jesus, she was brought back to life.

The third story happened when a woman who had bleeding for 12 years came up behind Jesus and touched the edge of his cloak. She said to herself, "If I only touch his cloak, I will be healed." Jesus turned and saw her. "Take heart, daughter," he said, "your faith has healed you."

And the woman was healed at that moment through her faith.

Faith is acting in what we believe. We are all reminded that faith in Jesus Christ will bring life, but we have to response to his call and all these people were healed because they believed through their faith in the power of God through Jesus Christ.

Grace & Peace, Rev Maile

Proverbs for Daily Living –

1. “Every single thing He has ever or will ever say is true.
The simplicity of faith is this: taking God’s Word for it.”

Jackie Hill Perry

2. “Faith is not the belief that God will do what you want.
It is the belief that God will do what is right.”

Max Lucado

Communion Worship Services at Estia Nambour have commenced earlier this year with Rev Maile leading the service on the first Wednesday of each month at 10AM with the support of Nola Griffith. We are in desperate need of a reliable keyboard for the Estia community for the service our Church is providing.
