Pentecost 5

Collect: O Lord, make us have perpetual love and reverence for your holy Name, for you never fail to help and govern those whom you have set upon the sure foundation of your loving-kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever, Amen.

From the desk of the minister: Storms in Life Miracles

We know for sure that God is looking after his own creation. He is at work at every moment, keeping the entire universe operating and caring for all his creatures. Most of his powerful acts are not recognised by us human beings as we take them for granted. However, from time to time God breaks through the barrier of man's blindness to allow us to see his power in action; this visible act is what we call a miracle.

The disciples had been following Jesus since day one and they have seen a few of the miracles that he performed. He cleansed the lepers, the blind had seen, he casts out demons and they were amazed by his capacity to restore people back to new life. Today, it was a different story for this is the first time for them to see Jesus rebukes the storm. They disciples were very fortunate because Jesus was there on the boat. His sleeping showed his humanity, but his stilling action showed his divinity. They knew that he can stop this wild wind that they experienced. As a result of the miracle, Christ was able to teach a valuable lesson to his disciples. Man tends to show off his own power to frighten others and to impress them with how great he is. Christ's purpose for performing miracles was not to impress, but to teach a lesson. They were surprised to find that Jesus had power over the forces of nature. We are surprised when we actually see God do something unexpected or something that seems impossible. Of course, this shows our limited idea of what God can do and our lack of faith. There are few storms in our lives; could we trust Jesus to overcome all our problems? Do we trust him enough? Today, we pray to God to strengthen our faith so that we can encounter life's problems with courage and persistence.

Grace & Peace, Rev Maile
