

Graham's Reflection

The Race is on! (Hebrews 12:1-2)

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God."

Even if you are not an avid follower of sports, chances are you found yourself drawn to the Olympic Games. Few have not at least watched the opening ceremony, and I am sure everyone will have their own take on it. Every host nation tries to outdo the previous hosts, and seemingly with no expense spared, strive hard to showcase their country. The Paris opening with the Seine River boat parade and the Eiffel Tower certainly ensured the games would have a distinctly French flavour, and left the global community waiting with great eagerness for the commencement, and to see how their team would perform in this unique country.

The games have been exciting, and we can be justly proud of all our athletes. They put years of time, work, effort, dedication, determination and perspiration into competing on behalf of their nation. I think especially of Hervey Bay Triathlete Matthew Hauser who started competing in triathlons when he was still a young lad attending the Hervey Bay UC. Go Matt! (Finished 7th a great achievement)

I often find the 'pregnant pause' at the start of each race almost unbearable to watch. Whether they are runners, rowers, cyclists or swimmers, there is that moment when they are lined up, the starter's pistol is primed, and the competitors faces have almost glazed-over, and muscles are taut as they prepare to leap into action. They have been preparing for this exact moment, and have mentally put everything else aside so they can focus on a good start and the race that lies before them. The writer of the Epistle to the Hebrews (traditionally thought to be the Apostle Paul) challenges us as Christians, and collectively as the Church, to have the same mind and determination. Now there's a challenge!

God is calling us as a Presbytery, worship communities and individuals to focus completely on the goals that God has set for us; to not look back other than to cast aside anything from our past that would weigh us down or hinder us from running with endurance the race that lies before us.

Are we primed and ready?

Do we even know what lane we are running in?

Are our eyes fixed on Jesus so that we will endure and not yield to the temptation of dropping out when the going gets tough?

Are we ready to let go of the weighty, unnecessary parts of who we have been, to navigate the new path marked out before us?

I pray that Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith will encourage and sustain us, and eventually rejoice with us along with the Saints when we cross the finish line and win the prize, which is of God's heavenly calling in Christ Jesus (Philippians 3:14)

God bless, Pastor Graham Huth

Blue Care Sunday - 18th August

In 1953, the first Blue Nurse travelled by tram to tend to her patients in their own homes. And thanks to our generous community, BlueCare has been there for Queensland ever since.

The need for in-home care, aged care and disability services has never been greater. Your kind gift today will help continue the legacy of care, service and companionship that empowers Queenslanders to live life their way.

A new chapter for the Uniting Church in Australia

Rev Charissa Suli has been installed as the Uniting Church in Australia's 17th President at St Stephen's Uniting Church in Sydney. Hundreds gathered to celebrate her as the youngest to lead the church nationally.

The vibrant service featured music and prayers reflecting the church's rich culture. Rev Suli spoke of unity and love in her address, highlighting Christ's inclusive love across boundaries. The ceremony included symbolic gestures and blessings from church leaders, marking a new chapter for the church under her leadership.

God bless Rev Suli!

Retired Ministers Lunch

Monday 12th August between 10.30 and 2pm, retired clergy/ministry agents and spouses are invited to come to Glasshouse country Uniting Church, 29 Twin Peaks Drive, Beerwah (off Steve Irwin Way just south of the Roys Rd intersection into Beerwah).

Please bring along your own lunch and we'll have tea/coffee/sugar and milk. We thought we could discuss the outcomes of Assembly and any concerns we have as a Presbytery group about our church going forward.

Hosts: Revs Trevor and Lynne Gibson, John and Marie Woodley, and Elizabeth Nolan.

Please contact Elizabeth 0448 358 774 or Trevor and Lynne 0401 783 621 for more information and RSVP

The demand for support at our Relief Hubs continues to grow as more people- including families with children - seek our services.

These families face the heart-wrenching choice between putting food on the table or facing homelessness.

No child should bear the burden of knowing their parent is going hungry to feed them.

A donation of $50 can provide a food hamper for a family in need.

Yes, I will donate a food

What a great day at our Annual UnitingWorld Sunday and Mission Lunch on 21 July!

It was all a bit different this year – service in the Chapel and then lunch in the Auditorium at Unity College. It worked so well thanks to the teams of willing workers – a fantastic effort!

Pastor Steven & Mardi Lumsden of UnitingWorld led us through the liturgy prepared for UnitingWorld Sunday and then we followed the sound of the Tongans singing to the Auditorium.

Our food focus this year was on international dishes prepared by families in our congregation who come from different countries so it was very appropriate that Mardi's input from UnitingWorld reflected on this year's Assembly and the strong international presence there.

We were reminded of the breadth of UnitingWorld's work and the growing multicultural presence within our Uniting Church. The incoming President is Rev Charissa Suli, a woman of Tongan heritage, who is the fourth woman and the youngest person ever to be appointed to this role.

Our local Tongan friends, the Lolohea family, added to the international flavour with their musical items and the people loved it and responded with extra gifts of money. The overall result was close to $1500 to go toward the work of UnitingWorld.

So our work goes on as we navigate the changes necessitated by our renovations.

There'll be some changes in venues over the next couple of months, but Uniting Community Breakfast will still happen every Monday, Mainly Music every Friday, Messy Church on the 4th Saturday of the month, and Tea and Toast at Orange Sky Laundry every Friday.

The changes in venue have not changed our mission focus –we are still engaging in Worship, Witness and Service.

THANK YOU FROM MUNDUBBERA OP SHOP

We have again received donations from the wider Presbytery for sales through the Op Shop. Each year itinerant workers arrive from overseas to work in the orchards in the district needing clothes suitable for our changing climate as well as blankets/bedding/towels.

We are very grateful for the donations we receive each year and the fellowship enjoyed with those who organise and deliver the donations. These sales support the whole Central Burnett Parish during these "trying" times.

So once again OUR SINCERE THANKS to you all

Mundubbera Uniting Church Congregation and volunteers.

QUEENSLAND DISASTER CHAPLAINCY NETWORK

Dear Pastors and Chaplains,

The Queensland Disaster Chaplaincy Network (QDCN) has been established in order to meet people in their time of need. When someone walks into an evacuation centre they are greeted by Red Cross and Council, but they desperately also need to have their faith needs met. The good news is we have been invited into these spaces! An incredible opportunity for the church to be able to minister to those who's hearts are already open.

QDCN is offering Disaster Chaplaincy Training to anyone who holds an ordination with their denomination or an accreditation with a chaplaincy organisation. This training is approved by councils and the state government and will give you the permission you need to be able to be deployed into evacuation and recovery centres. Additionally, councils are also calling on QDCN trained chaplains to attend crisis situations like the Russell Island House Fires, the Wieambilla Police Shooting, and the Stabbing of the women at Redbank Plains. This has been an incredible opportunity to minister to people who would never walk through the doors of our churches.

We have a number of trainings still to be run throughout the rest of this year. I'd encourage every church to send at least one representative to be involved in this training as feedback has been even just the knowledge of how disasters are coordinated has been valuable! Please feel free to forward this email to anyone who fits the eligibility criteria and of whom would be interested in the training. People can register there attendance via the links below.

Last week I took a short trip to Melbourne and recalled my first visit there in July 1974. As we landed from Brisbane, the pilot announced the temperature was only 3C. The following week was overcast, cold and rainy continually. The low grey clouds and fog seemed to oppress and depress us as we shivered in an old wooden church camp site on the Mornington Peninsula at a challenging national conference. At its conclusion, I had to fly alone to Switzerland for another international conference and I was only 23.

Because of further complications such as the handle breaking off my suitcase, I dreaded take-off through the low grey clouds into an unknown world far from Australia. We seemed to disappear into a white-grey fog for a few minutes but then emerged into a gorgeous blue sky with a brilliant sun shining so brightly on the top of the clouds I needed sunglasses against the glare. It was such a contrast to my environment just a few minutes earlier.

The scientific fact that beyond the clouds surrounding the earth, the sun always shines in our universe became real for me at that moment. The deeper theological truth that beyond the lies, violence and injustice of humans around us, God still loves and cares about humanity also became real for me and brought courage and comfort.

Flying above the clouds is always a thrill and magnificent experience for me now. I hope that you, too, can experience the joy and freedom of God's love and care despite the trials of this current world situation. May you be able to leave behind the sadness or suffering for a short time and remember God's love as you turn to focus on God's eternal goodness and promises for you. May you know today God's peace.

It is 80 years on 28th July since Pilot/ Officer Jim Hocking paid the supreme sacrifice. He and his crew were on a final exercise in a Sterling bomber (nicknamed the Flying Coffin) when 2 engines caught fire. After ordering his crew to bail out, he flew the plane away from the town of March in Cambridgeshire, but crashed in a field nearby. He was 22 years old. His name is on our Honour Board and the Air-force Stained Glass window in the church given by his family in his honour.

Farewell Orrell and Christine

On Sunday 2nd June, Uniting 4570 (Gympie Regional) said farewell to Rev Orrell and Christine Battersby. It was a moving service, led by Orrell and the church band. It was obvious that Orrell and Christine are much loved and will be missed very much by the congregation. The formal closure of ministry service was conducted by Rev Russell Morris and was followed by a fabulous morning tea.

Presbytery Report

Our Presbytery meeting at Gayndah on the 20th July was very well attended with many people choosing to drive out the day before and stay overnight.

It was great to have Graham back with us after his illness. Our Moderator Rev Bruce Moore joined us to share with us the Synod office strategy and he also gave us an assembly report.

We had Bethany Masters join us online to discuss Synod's new complaints resolution process, before taking a vote to formally adopt the proposal. This will hopefully streamline the process and reduce the time to resolve complaints.

We then had the usual reports and questions arising from those, and Mr Johan Frank was reappointed as treasurer for another year.

The PRC report noted that Graham is working at 80%FTE while he continues his recovery, along with the retirement of Rev Schalk Pienaar and the conclusions of Rev Orrell Battersby and Ps Susan Cameron.

Don and Sylvia Wright joined us to share what they have been doing for Uniting World - taking UW services - see page 18 of this newsletter for more information!

Central Burnett provided a lovely lunch of Soup, Quiche & Sandwiches and a fabulous morning tea, along with some beautiful citrus fruits grown by members.

Prayer

Gracious God,

You've shown us what is good: to act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with you. Grant us wisdom and strength to live out these principles.

Help us act justly, standing for fairness even when it's hard. May we bring your justice to a world often self-seeking.

Teach us to love mercy, seeing needs and responding with kindness. Grant us hearts of compassion and forgiveness.

Guide us to walk humbly, free from pride, acknowledging our need for you. Let our lives reflect your love.

Empower us by your Spirit to live faithfully. May our lives testify to your grace and honour you in all we do.

In Jesus' name, we pray,

Amen.
