Growing stronger together in Christ
and sharing His love

Sunday 2 March 2025

Collect: Shine upon us, Transforming Light, to illumine the shadowed areas of our lives. Let us hear your word with an awe that moves us to listen with our whole being. Change us from one degree of glory to another, that we may respond to your truth not just on the mountaintop, but also in the valleys where you call us to serve. Amen

From the desk of the minister:

The Transfiguration of Jesus

Today is a special day in our worship: we come to our usual service on a Sunday morning but at the same time we celebrate a life that has been taken from us. Our service will be a combination of Thanksgiving for the life of the late Rev. Alan Lanham and also our normal Sunday service. This is what Alan wanted when he was still with us. He wanted his memorial service to be held on our normal Sunday service. Isn't it a wonderful thing to see his humbleness and dedication to the Lord's ministry? He has been around in ministry for so many years and there are people who still remember his work in various congregations.

Today we come together to witness the Love of God for us, and we also come to thank God for the life of his faithful servant that has been called to rest in His eternal kingdom. Today we also come together to sing some of his favourite Methodist Hymns and also to celebrate the Sacrament of the Holy Communion.

The story of the Transfiguration today really unfolds the many faces of God in our lives. Sometimes the face of God really looks like a human friend or a loving and challenging parent or a poor homeless person who is desperate to find food. The God we worship is sometimes experienced in our time of troubles. It is felt when we experience healing and comforting when we are grieving.

Today we come together to seek our different needs from God. This God comes to us in different faces and different pathways. Just as we think this God is gone from us, God comes to us in the emptiness of our lives. He comes to us on the mountaintop and in the valleys. Let us worship God with many faces and trust Him to be our guide and strength in our journey of life.
