From the Desk of the Minister

Collect: Choose this day to sing with joy. Choose this day to love and serve. Choose this day to worship God. Speak to us O God, that we may hear your truth, both old and new. Amen.

Choose the Living God or choose the other gods?

In today's Old Testament reading from Joshua, he gathers the Israelites to emphasise to them the desire to live together under the Living God. They have come a long way from their liberation from Egypt. They had to leave their previous life of wandering as nomadic in the wilderness. Now they have entered into the land that God has promised to them. They are no longer wanderers in the desert, now they become permanent residents in Canaan. This is a new shift for the people because they no longer wanderer but they have their own place to live and call it home.

Today, Joshua is reminding them about the importance of being the chosen people of God. Joshua begins by saying, "you have to get rid of idol gods that your ancestors worshipped beyond the Euphrates River and in Egypt. Now you have to serve the Lord". Joshua was very strict with this challenge, he said, "if serving the Lord seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living, But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

Today, we can bring that challenge closer to us. Do we have other gods that really come first before the one and Living God?? If we have other gods, this is an opportunity to redirect or refocus our attention to the Living God that Joshua mentions today. Let us be prepared to meet the Bridegroom and celebrate with him in his banquet. A lack of preparedness results in a devastating rejection from the bridegroom.

Thanks for the lovely card from NUC Please pass on our sincere thanks to the congregation. Yours and their thoughts and prayers are much appreciated.... It is such a tough journey but we both know we are held in God's warm embrace and we have a very loving family who are supporting us both.
